Richard Wagner died while “wintering” in Venice on 13 February 1883.

This final visit was just one of many that the Master paid to Italy over the years.

In 2015 Dr Geoffrey Seidel spent some time in Italy, partly to retrace Richard’s travels.

The presentation will be colourfully illustrated with Italian scenes, ranging from Palermo to Naples and on to Venice...

Italian influences will be suggested in works including Tristan and Isolde, Rheingold and Parsifal.
