The Richard Wagner Society (Vic) is supporting the role of Klingsor, to be performed by Australian baritone Derek Welton (right) in Victorian Opera's new production of Parsifal. Richard Mills AM (left) is the Artistic Director and Conductor.

The Society will conduct a ballot for the 20 available places (to be drawn on Monday 4 February at the RWS Committee meeting). All applicants will be advised by email the outcome on 5 February.

1. The offer is open only to current financial members of The Richard Wagner Society Inc. Single members can apply for one place; joint members can apply for one or two places.
2. In the ballot should there be only one space left and the final name drawn is for 2 spaces, that person will be offered the remaining space. Extra applications will be drawn should some of the successful applicants be no longer able to attend.

The Committee will advise Victorian Opera the names of the 20 members who will be attending the General Dress Rehearsal. On arrival at the theatre, RWS members can expect to be asked their names. Please note tickets are not transferrable.
